This bright, south-facing apartment welcomes plenty of natural light all year round, making it especially cosy and sun-filled through the winter months perfect for anyone escaping the grey skies up north. Built with 103 m² (75 m² usable), the home offers a comfortable and practical layout with 2 generous bedrooms and 2 full bathrooms, making it equally suited to year-round living, a holiday base, or a smart investment. The apartment sits within a well-maintained, private residential complex, where you can unwind by the communal pool in a peaceful, green setting. A lift is also available, adding an extra layer of convenience and accessibility. Location is one of this property's biggest (Ask for More Details!)
